

FLAVORWIRE

Flavorpill Guide to This Week's Top 10 New York Events

By Mindy Bond on Sep 3, 2013 4:36pm

PARTY: Parisian Ball

Following the success of their Bastille Day bash at Governors Island, BABEL New York returns with another French-inspired soiree, this time celebrating Paris' reign as the capital of the fashion world. Again finding sanctuary in Fete Paradiso, a whimsical wonderland of vintage carnival rides and carousels, this party sequel imports the catwalks of Paris to our city's Upper New York Bay haven. After a parade of flirty fashions, Boston duo Soul Clap are slated to weave their web of house, funk, soul, and disco for all to dance by. Cocktails, food, and plenty of eye candy are also to be expected, so dial up your favorite Parisian duds and let's rendezvous on the ferry to this magical meet-up. — Mindy Bond