

Posted on: 08.23.13

Parisian Ball Kicks Off Fashion Week With Vintage Carnival Rides and Great Tunes

New York Fashion Week is on its way and to celebrate its homecoming, The Parisian Ball will be throwing a glamorous festival on September 7 on Governors Island with vintage carnival rides, fashionable crowds and great tunes.

Presented by Babel New York and Fête Paradiso, the Ball celebrates fashion as one of the defining elements of Paris. The festival is set to attract a well-heeled crowd and will kick off the NYFW season with fun carousel rides along with Soul Clap and DJ W!LD to play the right tunes. A selection of influential scenesters, contemporary fashion designers and cultural leaders will also be joining the party to ensure a true fashion vibe descends on the island.

For an old-school glamour party, head across to Governors Island to be part of all the fun that comes with a fashion festival.